

Living an Excellent Life
Doorways to Decision
I Peter 1:24, 25

The great French philosopher, Voltaire, once said, "I will go through the forest of scripture and girdle all the trees so that in one hundred years Christianity will be but a vanity memory." The very room that he penned those words was later purchased by the British and Foreign Bible Society and packed with bibles. The Bible has been the number one book for over 300 years. Why? Because it works! Today, let's discover the principles and challenge ourselves to go through the Biblical doorways to decision.

Four doors to decision . . .

I. Doorway to financial _____.

A. _____ to manage your money the way the bible says:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____ for your family.
4. _____ to the needy.

II. Doorway to a prosperous _____ environment = job.

A. _____ the bible's code of work conduct.

1. Be _____.
2. Be on _____.
3. Be _____.
4. Be _____, you might get promoted.

III. Doorway to relational _____.

A. _____ the bible on your relationships.

1. _____ your enemies.
2. _____ to gossip.
3. Be _____ to listen and slow to speak.
4. Do all you can to be at _____ with all.

IV. Doorway to a _____ soul.

A. The written Word is our _____ to a growing relationship with God.

1. He _____ through His Word.
2. He _____ through His Word.
3. He _____ through His Word.
4. He _____ through His Word.

Conclusion

1. Life changes with the seasons, but His Word _____ constant.
2. Consistent reading and study produces strong _____.
3. Great roots produce abundant _____.