

Experiencing New Vision
Dear God
Romans 8:26

Prayer is friendship with God. Prayer is simply two friends talking together. Prayer is a conversation between God and us, His children. It isn't a one sided dialogue. It isn't a one-track monologue of petitions, but a well-rounded dialogue.

Imagine that you have just entered into a relationship with Jesus Christ and you are just beginning to get involved in church for the first time. Where would you begin to even learn how to communicate with God?

The language of the Spiritual world is prayer. It is said that when God wants to bless His people, He moves us to pray. He moves us to converse back and forth in a well-rounded dialogue. So how does God's indwelling Spirit in us teach us to pray?

I. Understand that the spiritual world is our _____ of power.

A. Power is summed up in three words:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____

B. The Spirit inside us is a _____ teacher.

C. One of the Holy Spirit's jobs is to teach us the language of prayer and _____ us when it comes to addressing God.
1. He is good at it.

D. The Spirit can _____ our prayers even when we don't know what to say.

II. Prayer is the _____ between the physical and the spiritual world.

A. The spiritual world _____ the physical world.

1. Connecting in the world above _____ our functioning in the world below.

B. Prayer is _____.

1. We hear God talk to us in the _____ part of our being.

C. As we get to know the Bible the more we _____ God's will for us.

1. Consistent gathering of the knowledge of God opens our _____ to communicate with God.

Conclusion

1. The aspect of learning how to pray cannot be _____.

2. To know God's thoughts for us is our most _____ asset.

3. Be patient, take time, and learn how to communicate with the one person who wants the best for us in every _____ of our lives.