

Experiencing New Vision
Five at 55
Ephesians 5:15, 16; Galatians 6:9

The forty years between becoming a young man to a young middle aged man has brought, to say the least, a lot of change. First of all I have learned about forgiveness; that we need to forgive everybody, every time, for everything. Second, friends bring fulfillment to our lives.

We are on a journey entitled, 5 at 55; the five most important things that I have learned, with God's help, at 55. Time is sure wasted on things that really don't matter. We get mad at things that don't matter. We worry about things that don't matter. However, one thing I do believe is that what I do today matters.

Right now is important!

I. Make the most of every opportunity _____.

A. Right now do what is most important;

1. Say, "_____".
2. _____.
3. _____.
4. _____ of kindness.
5. _____ to somebody.
6. Pick up _____.
7. _____ on your dream.

II. _____ a careful life.

A. Can we say, "God, I have done my very _____ today?"

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____
7. _____

III. Do not be ignorant that we are living in _____ days.
Ephesians 5:16b

A. Things are not going to get better in this world, but . . .

1. God has your _____ under His control.
2. God has your _____ under His control.
3. God has your _____ under His control.

B. The days are evil, but _____ is not!

1. How could a loving God allow all of this turmoil? God loves you so much that He will give you _____ of moral choice.

Conclusion

1. There is a _____ of reaping.
2. Right now determines your _____.
