

Living Big Dreams
Blessed Obedience of a Favor Chaser

Deuteronomy 28:1-8; Galatians 3:14

I believe that God's Word speaks to us through our seasons of life. When we are in a season of growth, the Lord speaks to us and tells us that, "He is the Vine and we are the branches." When we are trying to recover after difficulty, He lets us know that, "He is the Potter and we are the clay." When we are trying to rise up, He lets us know that, "If we humble ourselves before Him, He will lift us up." When we seem not to see the fruits of our labors, He tells us, "Not to become tired of doing good, because we will reap a harvest if we don't give up."

In the season of winter's cold and when there seems to be no end in sight, God's Word will speak to us and let us know that through obedience we can participate in His divine blessing. To live a big dream we must live in blessed obedience.

I. We have the legal _____ to the blessings that God promised to the children of Israel. Galatians 3:14

A. Following God's commands gives us three legal rights:

1. The legal right to set _____ above = _____.
2. The legal right that His blessings will _____ and _____ upon us.
3. The legal right that His blessings will _____ us.

II. The _____ picture. v.3

A. God's abundant blessings are well _____.

1. The _____ will shine upon us in every place we go.
2. Our families wealth will stay _____.
3. Our _____ will be met.

III. The blessed obedience of favor chasers is evident in our dealing with _____.

A. The curse of a 'dog eat dog' existence will grow strangely _____.

1. Enemies will try to bring us down but they will not _____.
2. The work of our labors will have a _____ end.
3. We will be blessed in the community in which we _____.

When the enemy comes in . . .

Solid rock foundation . . .

Be transformed by the renewing

Conclusion

1. Faith in His _____ is not optional in the winter season.
2. It takes _____.
3. That which we give _____ to is what we will _____.