

It Might be Friday but Your Sunday is Coming

Mark 14:43-50; Mark 16:6, 7; John 8:36

Every person that has lived for any length of time has experienced lows in life. Perhaps you have been so low that you said, "I can't get any lower than this." Then again, you have also experienced extreme highs in life where you have said that, "It just doesn't get any better than this!"

We often say here at Crosswinds that, "Jesus came to set us free" in fact, that is what the Bible says about those who have accepted Christ's love and salvation in their hearts.

The message of the crucifixion and resurrection is that Jesus experienced the lowest of lows and the highest of highs all in a three day period. The word for you today is that you might be experiencing a low but you will not stay that way, you will experience highs in Christ as well because you are God's masterpiece.

Mark 14:43-50

I. What are Fridays like?

A. Everybody _____ you.

1. You _____ only difficulty ahead.
2. _____ and sorrow are on the horizon.
3. _____ would be better than this.
4. You are _____ by enemies.
5. _____ is prevalent.
6. _____ is gone.

That is what Friday is all about.

Mark 16:6, 7

II. What does Sunday look like?

A. A _____ day is dawning.

1. The _____ is bright.
2. _____ is yours.
3. _____ is abundant.
4. You are _____ by friends.
5. _____ is gone.
6. _____ reigns supreme.

John 8:36

III. Freedom for all is declared!

A. What does freedom actually look like?

1. You are not _____ of the afterlife.
2. You are _____ in who you are.
3. Your _____ is bright.
4. You have _____ in an ultimate victory.
5. God's _____ becomes yours.
6. God's _____ become yours.

Conclusion

1. If you are living in _____ know that Sunday is coming.
2. The Lord is no _____ of persons. His goodness is free for all!
3. Grasp all God's promises and allow His freedom to _____ in you!