It's Time for a Reset
2 Cor. 5:17 & Isa. 43:19

It has been said that "everyone wants to get better but very few people want to change."

We need a reset. It is time for a reset. A reset in life.

1. We need a reset of our finances. Ask yourself how you've done lately with your personal finances. Did you go out of bounds, maybe cheat a little, become a hermit, or keep it together?
2. We need a reset on spiritual priorities. Have you taken your eye off the prize: the prize is the greatness and blessing of God that is your inheritance.
3. We need a reset on mental health. If you want to have mental health that glorifies God and yourself, what changes must you make?

Conclusion

You are a new creation; God has a new thing for you to do. Let's reset, reboot, and revive ourselves as Php 4:13 says, "I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me."

Give Online: We have several ways to do so:
